Hi

I'm probably just another person giving you sympathy.. but I was a very, very close friend of Bradford. I can't even imagine what you're going through. I know I'm going through a whole hell of a lot. I was speaking to him last night, holding his hand. He said he was happier, and he misses you all. I told him to visit your family. He was with you guys at one point. I sound crazy, but I know he was there. Even my cat was staring at him. Lights flickered a bit, curtains moved. He's still here with us. He'll always be there for us. I hope you're doing well. Everything will get better in time, just have hope. He wouldn't want us to be sad. Get better, Tyffany. Love,

I told my mom, but she didn't believe me. I tried all I could to help him. At the back of my mind, I didn't think he was going to do it. I'm sorry for not completely knowing that he was going to shoot himself. It takes a lot to pull the trigger. It was 2 in the morning, and I was confused. I feel guilty enough. I was willing to run to his house and throw the gun in the lake, if I knew where he lived and if I knew he was actually going to do it. I'm sorry.
